MY BOY TATE in a bit departing the gate, wasted no time establishing control, threw down the fractions, firmly rated in the two path, was at the furlong grounds before switched over to stronger handling, remained well in the clear. GOLD FOR THE KING made it over to the rail by the conclusion of the backstretch, continued to race towards the inside while tracking the winner afterwards, stepped into the stretch and was set down, finished willingly to secure second. CELTIC CHAOS saw the rider grab hold after being pinched at the start, was put to a light hand ride upon recovery but was slow to settle into stride, left the backstretch from the two path, began to accelerate when given his cue angling to the outside during the final stages of the run around the bend, completed the maneuver stationed in the five path and took off in earnest after the one to catch, had enough in the final stages to earn the show. EYE LUV LULU well off the inside at all times, launched himself into contention with a four wide beginning from the half mile pole, made it all the way to around the three-sixteenths marker before having it fizzle out then backed away. OSTROLENKA forwardly placed towards the inside, got put to a drive after the half had been completed, arrived at the top of the lane and faltered. PAT ON THE BACK shied slightly and briefly after the field had been sent off and running, was three wide entering the turn and one path farther off the rail leaving it, came up empty. CANDID DESIRE hung out three to four wide on the turn, drifted into path seven early during the stretch run with no offering. HAUL ANCHOR set up the three path after the start, prompted the winner under encouragement on the turn before giving way.
