Footnotes

WONDER GADOT broke alertly and remained forwardly placed, pressed the issue from the two path, latched on to the leader and being rated along, continued to do the same as the pair of front runners made it past station by station, was narrowly in front settling into upper stretch, with the nemesis having already been called upon, got called upon herself during the start of the run through the furlong grounds, responded and kicked away. MAURER POWER came out a bit and brushed with her next door neighbor, was four wide heading for the clubhouse bend but worked out a tuck into the two path before stepping onto the backstretch, sat reserved in midpack stalking the front runners, was forced to remain on hold, mired in what can best-described as being in a blind switch during the last few jumps leading up to the quarter pole, had a usable seam between rivals come into being soon afterwards and was set down, slowly made her way towards it, did indeed split rivals belatedly and rallied well enough to procure the place. LAYLA NOOR brushed from both ends as the field was sent off and running, was unhurried in the two path during the opening phases, tipped into the path three in time for the trip on the subsequent turn, got asked for more coming up to the quarter pole, swung about five wide into upper stretch, straightened away and mustered up a mild response to claim the show award. DAISY broke on top and kept the advantage, stayed along the rail carving out the pace, with the eventual winner in accompaniment out in path two, saw the pilot resort to stronger handling soon after six furlongs had been reached, was displaced a sixteenth down the road despite that action, made it into the stretch and steadily backed away. HELD ACCOUNTABLE strung out three wide on both turns, was under a drive by the five-sixteenths marker, had no rally. INDY UNION raced three wide on the first turn, was one path off the rail on turn two, got put to a ride at the midway point, lacked the desired response and tired. STAKES ON A PLANE made light contact with LADY NOOR right after the start, darted over to the rail and rode it for over three-quarters pole, completed the rest of the top of the lane and had no rally. VINDICTIVE WAYS towards the inside, failed to pick it when asked at the three-eighths pole and gave way.
